Aztec Women

Ways of the World, First Edition

Templo Mayor Library Mexico/Gianni Dagli Orti/The Art Archive

While Aztec and Ming Dynasty women both had domestic responsibilities, particularly elite women of the Ming dynasty had fewer opportunities to participate in the society as a whole than Aztec women.

POV: Spanish commissioned artwork after conquest of Tenotichitlan in 1521, done by Aztec artists, only shows one aspect of Aztec women's lives

Evidence:

A) Aztec women-traders, teachers, priestesses, & rituals, officials in palace, craft workers organizations & domestic role

B) Ming women-after Yuan dynasty Confucian patriarchy revitalized, inner room, little participation outside traditional domestic role
