

Monday, January 26 (Collab Schedule)

DJ: 1) none

HW: 1) Chapter 15 Study Guide & Quiz T 1/27

2) Col. Ex./Slavery Socratic Seminar Prep. Block 1/28,29

Ann.: 1) APUSH MEETING M 1/26-H3-Lunch

2) Socratic Seminar Block 1/28,29--Graded

Today:

1) Journey through Slavery: The Terrible Transformation

INTERESTED IN AP U.S. HISTORY FOR 2014-2015?

WHAT IS APUSH?

This is a college-level class with college-level expectations. You should expect AT LEAST an hour of homework each night, sometimes more. We study American history from pre-Columbian times to contemporary events, and students are expected to know about and write intelligently on numerous themes, people, and events. This is an extremely demanding class; there are no excuses and there is no room for laziness in APUSH.

WHO SHOULD TAKE THIS CLASS?

You should take this class if you enjoy history, writing, reading college-level textbooks, and analyzing really old documents. If you like participating in class discussions, you can stay on top of demanding homework expectations, you are self-motivated, and you can handle constructive criticism of your writing, APUSH may be a good fit for you.

WHERE CAN YOU GET AN APPLICATION?

If APUSH sounds like something you might be interested in, come to a meeting on Monday, January 27 (collab day) in room 315. There you can pick up an application and writing prompt.

26

#3

In order to sign up for APUSH, you must attend this meeting, complete an application and writing sample, and turn in your work by FRIDAY, JANUARY 30. Late applications will not be accepted under any circumstances; part of being in an AP class is being able to meet deadlines.