I searched for God among the Christians and on the cross and therein I found Him not. Mystic

I went into the ancient temples of idolatry; no trace of Him was there.

I entered the mountain cave of Hira and then Rumi
went
as far as Qandar but God I found not . . .

Then I directed my search to the Kaaba, the resort
of old and young; God was not there even.

Turning to philosophy I inquired about him from ibn Sina but found Him not within his range.

Finally, I looked into my own heart and there
I saw Him; He was nowhere else.
