

Monday, September 29

DJ: 1) Complete a Word Spectrum for LEGACY.

2) What should be remembered about Rome? China? India?

HW: 1) Ch. 8 9/30 2) Webquest 10/1,2

Ann: Ch. 8 Quiz 10/1,2

Today:

1) Silk Roads--Ch. 8 PP & Crash Course

2) Legacy (Patterns, Continuity) of Rome, China

3) Overview of 3rd Wave Civilizations

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS:

3.1 What continuities and changes occurred related to the causes, patterns, and effects of trans- regional communication and exchange between 600 and 1450 CE?

3.2 What continuities and changes occurred related to state forms and state interactions between 600 and 1450 CE?

3.3 What were the causes, patterns, and effects of increased economic productivity between 600 and 1450 CE?

Impact of Contributions of each network:

a) Sea Lanes:

b) Silk Roads:

c) Sand Roads:

Map 5-1
Ways of the World, First Edition
© 2009 Bedford/St.Martin's

Legacy

The Legacy of Rome

- Republic Government
- Roman Law
- Latin Language
- Roman Catholic Church
- City Planning
- Romanesque Architectural Style
- Roman Engineering
 - Aqueducts
 - Sewage systems
 - Dams
 - Cement
 - Arch

Chinese Continuities/
Patterns

1. Ethnocentrism
Chinese believed their culture superior to others China as "Middle Kingdom"
 2. Xenophobia
Fear and distrust of foreigners
 3. Creativity and innovation
Science and technology/Inventions
Art and literature
 4. Importance of family
Patriarchy, Ancestor worship
 5. Low status of women
Social and economic
 6. Conflict with nature'
Floods, earthquakes, typhoons, droughts, insect infestations sometimes led to mass starvation
1. Authoritarian, strong, central bureaucratic government (not initially)
 2. Dynastic cycle
 1. Revolts against strong, often abusive, central government
 3. Cultural conservatism
 1. Limited cultural change over 3,500 years
 4. Education valued
 5. Hard lives of peasants